

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR
The SepticSmart
Workshop

Tuesday, September 21, 2021
6:00 - 7:30 pm

WHERE:

Geauga West Library

13455 Chillicothe Rd.
Chesterland, Ohio
44026

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

SepticSmart Week is an annual event focused on educating homeowners and communities on the proper care and maintenance of their septic systems.

In this FREE in-person presentation, Dave Sage & Zach Myers of Geauga Public Health will discuss:

- How a home septic system works
- How to maintain your home sewage treatment system
- What to do when it appears to not be working properly
- Septic Do's and Don'ts
- Protecting your investment, the public health & our water

Plus your chance to win a FREE SEPTIC TANK PUMPING SERVICE!

Reservations are required to attend! Visit:
geaugalibrary.libcal.com/event/7836193

Because Clean Water is Everyone's "Duty"!

Questions? Contact Geauga SWCD at 440-834-1122 or gprunty@geaugaswcd.com

Sponsored by:

Geauga Soil and Water Conservation District

Geauga County Public Library

Clean Water Starts at HOME

This program is part of the Stormwater,
Phase 2, and You education series.